A Flour Mill Proposition

The council met on Thursday last with Councilor Holmes as acting mayor owing to the indisposition of Mr. Frost. There wasn't very much business transacted several being anxious to show good will to the baseball club by attending the concert.

Mr. Musgrave addressed council asking permission to use part of the public streets (Third Ave. and Railway Streets) for the accommodation of building supplies etc. in connection with the erection of a brick building for James Clark. The request was granted on motion of Councilors Cunningham and Bowen.

Mr. Musgrave also asked if the town wished clay from the excavation for the streets. That will be decided after the nature of the clay is revealed and was left to the Local Improvement committee.

The representative of the Canadian Rubber Co. addressed council in reference to a new hose reel and the question was referred to the fire committee. Councilor Clark announced that a well known millage company wished to build a mill here if granted certain concessions. They would build a 200 barrel mill and 45000 bushel elevator guaranteeing torped 800,000 on plant. In return they want a free site, exemption from taxes for ten years, the town to guarantee bonds for $20,000 and a guarantee of a water supply. The company would give the town a first mortgage on mill and elevator. The company would also like to sell $100,000 worth of stock so as to ensure the support of this district. The company have a large mill in operation in the province and have a market for more than they can grind.

Building Boom Coming

It looks as if Clareholm is to have a decided building boom this year. Quite a number have plans under consideration. Tenders have already been accepted for the erection of a two story brick store for Mr. James Clark. It will be of brick and have entrances on both Railway street and Third Avenue. The grocery department will be entirely separate from the drygoods and the entry to it will be on Third Ave. There will be large plate glass windows on both streets. Hung Chung, the High River Chinaman who bought 20 feet from Milnes & Noble at a record price $100 a foot, has also let the contract for a solid brick building with plate glass front. The building will be two stories for 20 foot each, and one store for the remainder of the sixty feet. Mr. Musgrave of Zang & Musgrave will erect a cottage on Fourth Ave. and take up residence here. A number of other buildings are contemplated and by next autumn Clareholm will present a vastly improved appearance. At the council last Thursday Mr. Musgrave asked for permission to use part of Third Ave. and Railway Street in connection with the erection of Mr. Clark's store. He asked for generous space and strange to say there was considerable opposition. One would have thought the council would have been delighted to grant the concession because no more was asked than is usual and proper protection was guaranteed. Clareholm needs and can buildings above almost all else and the people will not tolerate any disposition to place obstacles in the way of men who are willing to invest their capital in modern buildings.

Every Farmer Invited

Every farmer who can possibly come to Clareholm on Saturday should do so. The local branch of the United Farmers Association have arranged for a big gathering in the L.O.O.F. hall at which among others addressed will be delivered by W. G. Tregillus of Calgary and E.J. Freeman of Innisfail, secretary of the provincial association. Government ownership elevators, Government pork packing plant, chilled meat industry, hail insurance and other subjects are to be discussed.

Story Of A Lost Watch

A rather interesting police case developed last week when a man named Way was charged with having a watch in his possession which should amount to the pocket of John Miller. Last June at a baseball match Mr. Miller either lost his watch or it was stolen and he advertised for it in three issues of the Review. This had no effect but had fallen into the hands of a dishonest man. Last week the watch was spotted in the pockets having been taken in by Way for repairs. The town police got busy and Way was taken to the court. He told a story which bears evidence of truth. He got the watch from a fellow city player on the waterworks ditch who won it in a poker game. It appears the man who is supposed to have found or stolen the watch lost more money than he owned and he gave the watch for the balance. The man who won it, a negro, sold to Way. The police are looking for the alleged thief who is said to be working in the woods near Fernie.

Inspects New School

Architect Lines was here this week for a view to taking a final look over the new school before relieving the contractors. He found a few very minor defects with the general work such as a chip out of the plaster here and there and these are being remedied by the contractors. It is understood that the heating system failed to pass inspection and that the big gas heater was Mr. Walden whose name the system bears. The Lethbridge firm is busy making good and all will be well in a day or two when the school as completed will be accepted.

Where Clareholm Failed

Messrs Alex Bell and Storey Lamb were in from the foothills last week with a shipment of cattle. They shipped 15 head to Vancouver. Speaking to the Review they said that instead of the cattle industry dying there will be more raised each year in the South. Asked why the foothill men drive their cattle to Cayley instead of shipping from Clareholm Mr. Lamb said it was all due to there being no weigh scales here. There are scales at Cayley and at the Pigeon station and these places were the shipping points. The Review men witnessed and the closing of trails may have had something to do with it but the foothill men said that there was nothing in that view. The trails to Clareholm are better than to Cayley or Pigeon. Facilities for weighing live stock seems to the Review to be a very small obstacle to having the shipping done from here. The board of trade should take this question into consideration.

Dedicated Masonic Hall

The fine new Masonic hall at Staveley was dedicated Monday night by the Grand Master J. T. Macdonald of Calgary and other Masonic notables. The social feature took the form of a spread provided in general by Miss Hest Conlley of the Staveley hotel. The visiting brethren and local brethren responded to toasts in eloquent addresses to the Grand Master being particularly appropriate and inspiring. Among the outsiders present were Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Guy of Clareholm, Mr. Patterson of Macleod, Mr. Smith of Fischer Creek, Mr. Glenedenburg of Nanaimo, and Messrs Macdonald, Wynne, Armstrong and Blair of Calgary. An interesting feature of the gathering was the installation of the officers of the Staveley lodge. Those who will preside over the destinies of Free Masonry in Staveley for 1910 are J. H. Journeik, R. C. Hopkins, R. Blandfield, R. Macfarlane, J. Brand, G.R. Severson and Dan Currie. The new lodge is ornately furnished and is a distinct credit to the brethren at Staveley.

Tragedy At High River

High River, March 1st.—On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock C. Stanley Young aged 18 years, teller in the Dominion Bank, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head. The tragedy came as a great shock to the town being so unexpected. Mr. Young, who has influential connections in the province, had made rapid progress in the bank and was looked on as exceptionally bright. He was popular and up to two months ago was an active worker in the Methodist church. He suddenly withdrew and refused absolutely to have anything to do with a religious organization. He was not leading a fast life and why he made the sudden change was a mystery to everyone. On Sunday he seemed to be in jovial mood and was joking and laughing at the dinner table and in the afternoon went to the bank. Here he was in affable mood with two other members of the staff and about 3 o'clock they asked him to go for a walk. He refused saying he would prefer to read. His companions went out and on returning found him lying on the bed in the room of the clerk who sleeps in the bank, with a bullet through his head. Medical men were hurriedly summoned but the revolver had done its work too well. He died six hours later in the hospital. The deceased was a grandson of the late Rev. George Macdonald, the pioneer Methodist minister in Alberta.

Opening Of The School

Clareholm's magnificent new school was formally opened on Friday night last the occasion being graced by the presence of Dr. Torry principal of Alberta University and the man who is laying the foundations for the future higher educational life of this rising young province. The function took place at night a reception being held from 8 to 9 o'clock in which a large number of ratepayers and parents of the pupils were shown over the building. Judging by the exclamations of pleasure everyone was not only delighted but greatly surprised. At 9 o'clock the visitors required to the fine assembly hall which was well filled. The feature of the gathering was an address by Dr. Torry on "Educational Ideals on the American Continent." Mr. C. J. Brown, chairman of the school board, presided and introduced the distinguished visitor in felicitous terms. On the platform were H. W. Brownlee, principal of the school, Rev. P. Henderson, A. B. Macdonald, (Lyndon) W. A. Cornwall, Conciliar, Cummings, Miller and Clark, school trustees, Simpson, Stevens and Tillson, Rev. A. B. Argue and the editor of the Review. School trustee Camies was out of town on business. Dr. Torry's address was an able plea for higher education. Every free state recognizes the obligations towards primary education and he noted the advance in progress towards secondary education. He quoted figures showing the money spent in Massachusetts, New York, Illinois, Ontario and other states and provinces, the old New England state leading by a considerable margin. An interesting comparison was shown that in Massachusetts the productivity of the state and the earnings powers of the people were in proportion as high as the amount spent on education. The speaker made a strong plea for the university and showed that in reality it is the foundation of the educational system for in it are trained the experts who go forth to impart knowledge. Figures were quoted showing the amount spent by various states on education and the speaker stated that 25 cents per head of the population would place the Alberta University on a favorable basis. Twenty-five cents be remarked in passing is the price of two cigars. The lecture was most illuminating and although not of the popular sort was listened to with the closest attention. A vote of thanks to Dr. Torry was moved in a witty speech by Mr. W. A. Cornwall representing the board of trade and seconded by J. G. Cummings representing the town council. Previous to the lecture there were a couple of musical selections by Messrs J. D. Griffiths and Vaughan with Mr. W. Moffatt as interpreter.

This Friday night March 4th the children of the school will give an entertainment in the assembly hall

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Guy, Maxwell, Ont. was the scene of an interesting event Wednesday, Feb. 10th, when their daughter Lizette was married to Mr. Hector Donald McIntyre of Clareholm, Alta. Rev. A. P. Stanley performed the ceremony. The bride, wearing a stylish invelving suit of taupe grey shade, satin stripe, was unattended and given away by her father while Mrs. Stanley played the wedding music. The witnesses were Mr. Neil McIntyre, brother of the groom, and Miss Maude Guy, sister of the bride, who was groomed in a becoming blue with cream trimmings. The bride is one of Maxwell's most popular young ladies. Among the numerous and beautiful presents was an organ, the gift of her father and a fur robe from Mr. N. McIntyre. That their lives will form a happy and full of sweet harmony and no discord is the wish of a host of Osprey friends as they go to their home in sunny Alberta.

THE PROVINCIAL CRISIS

At a meeting of the Clareholm Liberal Club this week a resolution was passed endorsing the attitude taken by Hon. W. H. Cushing towards the Alberta & Great Waterways railway project. That such a motion was to be expected was apparent to any man who is at all familiar with public sentiment in Southern Alberta. No member supporting the present agreement with the A. & G. W. Co. could possibly hope to be elected in Southern Alberta. Public sentiment is almost unanimous in opposing it. The Review has so far expressed no opinion because we were waiting to read the statements from Mr. Cushing, the Premier, and others. What ever doubt existed has been dispelled by the amendment moved by Messrs. Woolf and McDougall, which in our opinion amply vindicates the criticism made by Mr. Cushing.

The amendment reads as follows: "Therefore be it resolved that in the opinion of this house the proposition of the president of the said company offering to make certain changes in the said contract be accepted and legalized and that the said road be hastened to completion with the greatest possible dispatch, and that the government endeavor to secure from said company the privilege of retaining said money for a further period of five years after completion as a guarantee of operation and payment of interest."

It is said this amendment is acceptable to the government.

What does the amendment mean? It means that the agreement was loosely drawn as alleged by Mr. Cushing and that the exposure resulted in the hasty attempt of the company and the government to amend the proffered, strengthening what is a deplorable work bargain so far as the interests of this province are concerned. There is no other interpretation.

There are not a dozen business men in the Southern part of Alberta opposed to the construction of the road. If it develops rich natural resources, as expected, all parts of the province would benefit. What is objected to is an unbusinesslike agreement which is expected to give the promoters a get-rich quick opportunity and which threatens the financial integrity of the province.

Many stories of graft are afloat. Not one title of evidence has been produced as yet to support the rumors. Readers would do well to ignore such stories until proof is forthcoming. Graft stories are the outcropping of a crisis, the result of excitement working on the imagination. It would have been infinitely better for the Liberal party if Mr. Rutherford had not ignored Mr. Cushing's protests. The policy carried out with such fatuous obstinacy can have only one result if Mr. Rutherford retains the premiership.

The Liberal party will be routed as soon as the elections get a chance.

If Mr. Rutherford would step aside and allow Mr. Cushing to become premier Liberalism will live in Alberta. Otherwise the outlook is dark. However the main issue is not the fortunes of the political party but the welfare of the province. The average man regards the A. & G. W. agreement as a menace to the best interests of Alberta and it should be cancelled, or rewritten in terms which place the company in a secondary position instead of the province, as at present obtains.

SCAVENGING SYSTEM

While the council has wisely decided to await the provisions of the forthcoming Municipal bill in the Legislature before deciding on a scav-enging system it would be well if the rate payers would take a lively interest in the problem and by some means let the council know to what extent they are prepared to go in installing an efficient service as is possible without severe loss. There has been great deal of typhoid fever this winter and many are puzzled as to its origin. Some think the exceedingly mild winter may be to blame, but mild weather is not a cause of typhoid. The report of the minister of agriculture for Alberta, just issued, deals extensively with the question, pointing out sources of infection and it may be that the uncleanness of the present out-closets in Clareholm may be responsible.

There is little or no regulation of them in this town and as they offer the greatest menace for the spreading of typhoid, the council should before Spring take drastic measures, if necessary, to compel a general cleaning and the complete and absolute destruction of the contents. Some people may kick but that should not deter the council. There has been a heavy death toll in typhoid here this winter and it is getting to be a serious problem. There has been more money spent in doctors' fees and undertakers' fees in the past six months than it would take to clean the town up in a thorough manner. We are not saying that Clareholm is any greater sinner than any other Western town but that doesn't alter the situation any, or make the suffering and sorrow here any lighter. It could be Clareholm's privilege to lead in setting an example in cleanliness which other towns might be glad to emulate. The water is not the cause of the typhoid. The cause lies elsewhere and there are many who believe the out-closet and the house fly the two greatest sources of danger. This outbreak didn't start recently. There has been more or less typhoid for the past six months and there must be uncleanness, born of not knowing how, in the precautionary measures to prevent infection. It can be spread by a disordered care in the use of the out-door conveniences, in the absence of curbing the contact of the healthy with the victim of the disease and in other ways. The Review is not able to state all the sources of danger but we strongly believe that there are some of the more common causes of the spread of the illness. There should be a strong campaign this spring against allowing closets to remain uncleared, against the household and in the direction of giving the people a knowledge of the ordinary precautionary measures. The board of health is frequently accused of as a dead institution. Here is scope for very useful work. Let the board appoint a committee to investigate and report on a scavenging system as modern as possible and yet within the means of the people.

Let the board appoint a committee to investigate and report on a scavenging system as modern as possible and yet within the means of the people.

There has been more or less typhoid for the past six months and there must be uncleanness, born of not knowing how, in the precautionary measures to prevent infection. It can be spread by a disordered care in the use of the out-door conveniences, in the absence of curbing the contact of the healthy with the victim of the disease and in other ways. The Review is not able to state all the sources of danger but we strongly believe that there are some of the more common causes of the spread of the illness. There should be a strong campaign this spring against allowing closets to remain uncleared, against the household and in the direction of giving the people a knowledge of the ordinary precautionary measures. The board of health is frequently accused of as a dead institution. Here is scope for very useful work. Let the board appoint a committee to investigate and report on a scavenging system as modern as possible and yet within the means of the people.

I will conduct a feed and sales stable second to none in Southern Alberta and farmers in giving me their patronage will have the assurance that I know how to care for horses and use them right.

The livery department will be equipped with the best of vehicles and the speediest of road horses. Travellers and others can count on a most satisfactory service.

I will continue the draying business so well built up and hope by prompt attention to hold all the present patrons of the service and gain many new ones.

We are arranging to install a stock yard and weighing scales and will soon make an announcement of interest to the town.
